

FAT POWDERS

Health-friendly fats

Once a forbidden food for diet-conscious consumers, 'good' fats have now taken their rightful place in a balanced diet. Today's innovative plant-derived versions acknowledge the importance of fats for energy, cell growth and nutrient absorption.

ECD Ingredients is proud to be part of this 'fat revolution', offering an exciting collection of plant-based nutritional fat powders. An advanced spray-drying process preserves the vital qualities of each plant oil, and all the powders are derived from genuine plant sources. Now you can put the goodness of natural plant fats into supplements, sports drinks and diet formulas.

ECD manufacture a range of spray nutritional fat powders, including
